

VILLAGE PLATS

BARGERSVILLE.

Jefferson Barger, February 7, 1850----- Owner. 1-47
 Peter D. Jacobs, June 13, 1851----- Owner. 1-48
 Christian Kegley, June 11, 1853----- Owner. 1-54

BARGERSVILLE,

situated in Section 1, Township 12, Range 3, was laid out by Jefferson Barger, February 17, 1850. It contains a store, church, school house and post office, and a population of 150. From ATLAS OF INDIANA (1876), p. 318.

1880

BARGERSVILLE. Union township, Johnson county, is a place of 250 inhabitants, 6 miles northwest of Franklin, the county seat and nearest railroad depot. The village has two churches—Christian and United Brethren—and district school. Mail tri-weekly. Bennett Jacobs, postmaster. Barger F, carriage mnfr. Barger G T, painter. Clark George, blacksmith. Echols James, painter. Farris J S, physician. Finney & Sedam, tile manufacturers. Humphreys John R, carpenter. Jacobs & Jacobs, General Store. Littleton W T, books and periodicals. Riners W T, justice of the peace. Robards Landon, justice of the peace. Utterback Joseph, harness. Williams W T, blacksmith.

1887

BARGERSVILLE. A village in Union township, Johnson county, 6 miles northwest of Franklin, the county seat, banking town and nearest railway approach. The village supports a Christian church. Population, 100. Mail, daily. Joel Clore, postmaster. Clark George, carriagemaker. Clore Joel, General Store. Echols George, carpenter. Farris E P, painter. Farris J S, physician. Jacobs P D, live stock. Johnson E B, produce. List & Wiley, saw mill, tile and brick mnfrs. Littleton W T, books and stationery. Littleton, plasterer. Poor N, painter. Telford W E, physician. Williams J E, painter. Williams W T, blacksmith.

1890

BARGERSVILLE. A village in Union township, Johnson county, 6 miles northwest of Franklin, the county seat, banking town and nearest railway approach. The village supports a Christian church. Population, 100. Mail, daily. W. T. Littleton, postmaster. Clark W T, blacksmith. Clore Joel, general store. Farris E P, painter. Glasburn Joseph H, general store. Haymaker John, blacksmith. Jacobs P D, live stock. Littleton George, plasterer. Littleton W T, Postmaster.

1882

BARGERSVILLE. Contains 275 inhabitants, and is situated in Union township, Johnson county, 6 miles northwest of Franklin, the county seat, banking town, and nearest rail approach. The village supports Christian and United Brethren churches. W. T. Littleton, postmaster. Barger G T, painter and carriage manufacturer. Clark George, blacksmith. Covert & Jenkins, General Store. Echols James, painter. Farris J S, physician. Glasgo & Poor, general store. Humphreys John R, carpenter. Johnson E B, produce. Littleton W T, Books and Periodicals. McDermott T, shoemaker. Powell H, cattle dealer. Rivers W T, justice of the peace. Robards Landon, justice of the peace. Sedam & Bro, tile manufacturers. Williams W T, blacksmith.

Poor J. W, produce.
Poor N, painter.
Telford W E, physician.
Williams W T, blacksmith.

1892

BARGERSVILLE. A village in Union township, Johnson county, 6 miles northwest of Franklin, the county seat, banking town and nearest shipping point. Population, 108. Mail, daily. W. T. Littleton, postmaster. Clark W T, blacksmith. Jacobs P D, live stock. Littleton George, plasterer. Poor J. W, produce. Poor N, painter. Williams W T, blacksmith. Miller & McQuinn, general store. Littleton W T, General Store. Williams John E, barber. Farris J S & E P, physicians. List J H & Bro, tile mnfrs. Roberts W E, flour mill.

1894

BARGERSVILLE. A village in Union township, Johnson county, 6 miles northwest of Franklin, the county seat, banking town and nearest shipping point. Population 120. Mail daily. Clark W F, blksmith. Farris J S & E P, physicians. Jacobs P D, live stock. Jones J W, general store. List J H & Bro, tile mnfrs. Littleton W T, general store. Roberts W E, flour mill. Williams J E, general store.

1884

BARGERSVILLE. Contains 275 inhabitants, and is situated in Union township, Johnson county, 6 miles northwest of Franklin, the county seat, banking town and nearest railway approach. The village supports Christian and United Brethren churches. Joel Clore, postmaster. Barger G T, painter. Clark George, blacksmith. Clore Joel, general store. Echols George, carpenter. Echols James, painter. Farris J S, physician. Glasgo & Poor, general store. Johnson E B, produce. List Sedam S, saw mill. Littleton W T, Books and Periodicals. Poor N, painter. Powell H, cattle dealer. Sedam & Bro, tile mnfrs. Stephenson A A, general store. Telford Dr, physician. Williams W T, blacksmith.